Welcome

24TH NOVEMBER 2023

Hello all. We are fast approaching the festive period and our staff and children are very busy at the moment. Please see a reminder of key dates coming up. On Friday, we will be getting our Christmas tree up and, like we did last year, we would like children to bring their own bauble in to decorate our tree. On Friday the 8th, when children are wearing their Christmas jumpers, please can they donate an item for our Christmas raffle. To encourage positive attendance in the run up to Christmas, we will be giving children a raffle ticket for every day that they are in school for our attendance prize. Winners will be announced during our attendance assembly in the last week of the half term. If your child is unable to come into school, please make sure you always contact the school office, so the absence is logged as authorised as opposed to unauthorised. Have a great weekend all.

Nursery-Mrs Leah

Ayla- Ayla for settling so well into Nursery, for coming in every day and being super brave and always trying her best. For being so smiley and showing kindness to others, we were also so impressed with your beautiful singing this week too!

Kaya-Kaya for settling so well into Nursery, for listening carefully to instructions and for trying his best during all our activities. Kaya is working super hard to follow our classroom routines and we are so impressed with how well he has been coming into our Nursery every day!

Reception-Mrs Hoang & Miss Lucas

Lucas L – Lucas we are super proud of how resilient you have been this week! You have shown Rosie Resilience both inside and outside of the classroom. You have overcome challenges during our obstacle course and spent a long time completing some tricky math's. Well done!

Alexia G – Alexia, you have shown Rosie Resilience in abundance this week! You have gone above and beyond to succeed in your phonics, and we could not be prouder of how much you have come on in such a short space of time. Well done!

Year 1 Mrs Wills

Penelope F - I am so impressed at your Resilience. The efforts you make with your work are phenomenal. You are growing in self-belief and confidence as a reader, and it is lovely to see how proud this makes you. What a superstar!

Olivia R - What a good week you have had, displaying your Resilience! Just like Rosie you are trying your best in all aspects of school life. You have been listening well and giving thoughtful responses to questions asked. Well done, Olivia.

1&2 Miss Addy

Ebony – I am super proud of the Resilience you have shown this week! You have shown Rosie Resilience inside and outside of the classroom and have carried on even when things are hard. Keep it up, you are a superstar!

Eliza – Every week you show Resilience and Rosie would be proud! You always carry on even when things are tricky, and you always want to improve your work. Just like Rosie you always try your best, well done!

2H-Miss Heslegrave

Jasmine K – for showing Resilience in all areas of the curriculum, especially in her writing. Just like Rosie Resilience you always try your best! Keep up the hard work, you are a superstar.

Jacob F - I am so proud of the resilience you have displayed all week. You are extremely hard working and supportive of your peers. You are amazing at thinking of solutions to challenges, especially during Math's. Well done, Jacob.

3N-Miss Neale

Amelia-Rose: Amelia-Rose, I am so proud of you this week. Not only have you been completing your work independently, but you have also shown some fantastic behavior. Just like Rosie resilience, you have shown me that you will not give up, even if you find something tricky! I am so proud of you Amelia, keep it up!

Harley: This week we have been completing tricky assessments and Harley has shown Rosie resilience in abundance. If he found something difficult, he always made sure to come back to it at the end and give it his best go. It has been a pleasure to watch your attitude to your work this week Harley, well done!

3&4T-Miss Thorneycroft

Max-Max you have learnt a lot from Rosie resilience this week. You have had the confidence to ask for help when things have been difficult and learnt that making mistakes helps you to learn. I am so proud of everything that you have achieved this week. Well done!

Joel-Joel are you sure you are not Rosie resilience in disguise? You always get stuck in and are not afraid to try something new. When the going gets tough you bounce back and give it another go, using mistakes to help you learn and grow! You are super!

4K-Mrs Kendall

Kara – Kara for settling into Halsnead fantastically, you have shown all our school values and a welcome addition to our class we are so excited you have joined us. Your resilience this week has been outstanding!

Callum – You have had a fantastic week, you have been working hard in lessons, producing some lovely pieces of work and you have also been an excellent class member role modelling our school values to other children.

5K-Miss Keenan

Ameila S – Where do I start? You are so resilient. You show this each and every day in your work. You love trying your best and doing well but you also understand that feedback will help to improve your work in that lesson and lessons to come. Well done!

Isabella – Isabella you are Rosie resilience! Your work ethic, your drive and ambition are something to be admired by all. I love how much you care about your work and always want to do well. You enjoy getting feedback and you use this to better your learning, understanding and work next time. Superstar!

5&6D-Mr Doherty

Seth B-Seth has had a great week. He has worked really well during his math sessions and produced some fantastic work. Seth also upholds our school values and shows resilience in abundance. Well done, Seth, keep it up!

Shahed- Shahed has had a great week. She could get this award every week as she demonstrates all of our values at all times. Shahed is a role model to others and always there to lend an ear. Shaded has worked relentlessly hard this week and produced some great work. Well done, Shahed, keep up the good work!

6L-Mr Lenaghan

Ryan F - It has not been long since Ryan last got this value award, but he is a deserved winner again as we have been blown away by his English work this week. He has shown great resilience to improve his handwriting; I think he even shocked himself with how beautifully it was presented. We are super proud of him and cannot wait to read more of his work.

Jude H - Jude is someone who could get this award every single week as he embodies all our Halsnead values. He is a role model in our class and a great example for our younger children throughout school. It is a pleasure to have Jude in the class.
