

WELCOME

Hello everyone. It was so lovely to see so many parents and carers at our SEND surgery, celebration of work and new to nursery session. Your continued support and involvement in school is very much appreciated.

Our year six boys were an absolute credit to us during their football tournament yesterday – as ever, they showed aspiration and integrity. We are all very proud of them.

As you can see, next week is a very busy week and we look forward to seeing you at sports day. Have a great weekend all.
