1 Compliance

- 1.1 This equality statement and objectives has been prepared with due regard to the following statutory provisions and guidance:
 - 1.1.1 Equality Act 2010;
 - 1.1.2 Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties and Public Authorities) Regulations 2017; and,
 - 1.1.3 Equality and Human Rights Commission, “Technical guidance for schools in England” as updated July 2024.
 - 1.1.4 Equality and Human Rights Commission, “Technical guidance on the public sector equality duty: England”, as updated 2023

2 About this statement

- 2.1 The Heath Family Trust has developed this Equality Statement to help us to meet its Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) under the Equality Act 2010.
- 2.2 The Equality Act’s provisions cover all aspects of school life such as the treatment of:
 - 2.2.1 pupils and prospective and past pupils;
 - 2.2.2 parents and carers;
 - 2.2.3 employees; and,
 - 2.2.4 the local community.
- 2.3 The act covers nine protected characteristics, which cannot be used as a reason to treat people unfairly. The protected characteristics are:
 - 2.3.1 sex;
 - 2.3.2 disability;
 - 2.3.3 race;
 - 2.3.4 age;
 - 2.3.5 gender reassignment;
 - 2.3.6 marriage and civil partnership;
 - 2.3.7 pregnancy and maternity;
 - 2.3.8 religion or belief; and,
 - 2.3.9 sexual orientation.
- 2.4 The Equality Act makes it unlawful to treat someone differently, either through direct or indirect discrimination, harassment, and victimisation or by failing to make a reasonable adjustment for a disabled person.

3 Statement

- 3.1 The Heath Family Trust is bound by the PSED to have due regard to the need to eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, and victimisation, and to promote equality of opportunity.
- 3.2 The specific duty on the Heath Family Trust is to:
 - 3.2.1 publish information to demonstrate how the Heath Family Trust are complying with the PSED; and,
 - 3.2.2 to prepare and publish equality objectives.

4 Guiding principles

- 4.1 In fulfilling the legal obligations cited above, the Heath Family Trust are guided by the following principles:-
- 4.1.1 Principle 1: All pupils are of equal value
 - 4.1.2 The Heath Family Trust see all pupils and potential pupils, and their parents and carers, as of equal value:
 - 4.1.2.1 whether or not they are disabled;
 - 4.1.2.2 whether or not they are pregnant or away on maternity related absence;
 - 4.1.2.3 whatever their ethnicity, culture, national origin or national status;
 - 4.1.2.4 whatever their gender and gender identity;
 - 4.1.2.5 whatever their religious or non-religious affiliation or faith background; and,
 - 4.1.2.6 whatever their sexual identity.
 - 4.1.3 Principle 2: The Heath Family Trust recognises and respect difference
 - 4.1.4 Treating people equally (Principle 1 above) does not necessarily involve treating them all the same. The Heath Family Trust's policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barriers and disadvantages which people may face, in relation to:
 - 4.1.4.1 disability, so that reasonable adjustments are made;
 - 4.1.4.2 ethnicity, so that different cultural backgrounds and experiences of prejudice are recognised;
 - 4.1.4.3 gender and gender identity, so that the different needs and experiences of girls and boys, women and men, and those who have reassigned their gender are all recognised;
 - 4.1.4.4 pregnancy and maternity, so that the differing needs of pregnant pupils and new mothers can be recognised;
 - 4.1.4.5 religion, belief or faith background; or,
 - 4.1.4.6 sexual identity.
 - 4.1.5 Principle 3: The Heath Family Trust fosters positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging
 - 4.1.6 The Heath Family Trust intends that its policies, procedures and activities should promote:
 - 4.1.6.1 positive attitudes towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people;
 - 4.1.6.2 positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status;
 - 4.1.6.3 an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents, in particular concerning the protected characteristics;
 - 4.1.6.4 positive attitudes towards pregnant pupils and new mothers;
 - 4.1.6.5 mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, women and men, and those who have reassigned their gender; and,
 - 4.1.6.6 an absence of sexual and homophobic harassment.

- 4.1.7 Principle 4: The Heath Family Trust observes good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development
- 4.1.8 The Heath Family Trust will not unjustifiably discriminate against our staff or applicants on the basis of their sex, marital or civil partner status, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, pregnancy or maternity, disability or age
- 4.1.9 Principle 5: The Heath Family Trust aims to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist
- 4.1.10 In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of the Heath Family Trust policies, the Heath Family Trust will take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between:
 - 4.1.10.1 disabled and non-disabled people;
 - 4.1.10.2 people of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds; and
 - 4.1.10.3 girls and boys, women and men.
- 4.1.11 Principle 6: The Heath Family Trust consult and involve widely
- 4.1.12 The Heath Family Trust engages with a range of groups and individuals to ensure that those who are affected by a policy or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones. The Heath Family Trust consult and involve:
 - 4.1.12.1 disabled people as well as non-disabled;
 - 4.1.12.2 people from a range of ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds;
 - 4.1.12.3 women and men, girls and boys, and those who have reassigned their gender;
 - 4.1.12.4 pregnant pupils and new mothers, and those with relevant experiences; and,
 - 4.1.12.5 both women and men, and both girls and boys.
- 4.1.13 People of different sexual orientation [note this information may not be as readily available].
- 4.1.14 Principle 7: The Heath Family Trust bases its policies and practices on sound evidence
 - 4.1.14.1 The Heath Family Trust maintains and publishes quantitative and qualitative information which shows its compliance with the public sector equality duty (PSED) set out in clause 149 of the Equality Act 2010, and on the basis of which the Heath Family Trust decide on specific and measurable objectives.
- 4.1.15 Principle 8: Measurable objectives
 - 4.1.15.1 The Heath Family Trust formulates and publishes specific and measurable objectives, based on the consultations the Heath Family Trust have conducted (principle 6) and the evidence the Heath Family Trust have collected and published (principle 7). The objectives which the Heath Family Trust identify take into account national and local priorities and issues, as appropriate. The Heath Family Trust will keep its equality objectives under review and report annually on progress towards achieving them.

5 The curriculum

- 5.1 The Heath Family Trust keeps each curriculum subject or area under review in order to ensure that teaching and learning reflect the principles set out above.

6 Ethos and organisation

- 6.1 The Heath Family Trust is committed to ensuring that the principles listed above apply to the full range of its policies and practices, including those that are concerned with:
- 6.1.1 pupils' progress, attainment and achievement;
 - 6.1.2 pupils' personal development, welfare and well-being;
 - 6.1.3 teaching styles and strategies;
 - 6.1.4 admissions and attendance;
 - 6.1.5 staff recruitment, retention and professional development;
 - 6.1.6 care, guidance and support;
 - 6.1.7 behaviour, discipline and exclusions;
 - 6.1.8 working in partnership with parents, carers and guardians;
 - 6.1.9 working with the wider community; and,
 - 6.1.10 addressing prejudice and prejudice-related bullying.
- 6.2 The Heath Family Trust is opposed to all forms of prejudice which stand in the way of fulfilling its legal duties under the Equality Act for example:
- 6.2.1 prejudices around disability and special educational needs;
 - 6.2.2 prejudices around racism and xenophobia, including those that are directed towards religious groups and communities, for example anti-Semitism and Islamophobia, and those that are directed against travellers, migrants, refugees and people seeking asylum; or,
 - 6.2.3 prejudices reflecting sexism and homophobia.
- 6.3 The Heath Family Trust keeps a record of prejudice-related incidents and, if requested, provide a report about the numbers, types and seriousness of prejudice-related incidents and how they are dealt with.

7 Roles and responsibilities

- 7.1 The Trust Board is responsible for ensuring that the Heath Family Trust complies with Equality Act legislation, and that this policy and its related procedures and action plans are implemented.
- 7.2 The CEO is responsible for implementing the policy; for ensuring that all staff are aware of their responsibilities and are given appropriate training and support; and for taking appropriate action in any cases of unlawful discrimination.
