Friday 7th March 2025

We had a lovely day of celebration for World Book Day. All the children looked wonderful in their book related costumes and enjoyed various activities throughout the day.

A highlight of the day was an online workshop with the poet, Ian Bland. The children were taken on a poem writing journey and all produced their own creative writing. Here is Izzy's poem - she performed it to the whole school during assembly! Well done, Izzy ☺

I've Never Seen

I've never seen a fridge climb a tree.
I've never seen a dog as small as a bee.
I've never seen a pigeon hold my hand.
I've never seen a Zebra in a band.

I've never seen a pig smoke a pipe.
I've never seen a Monkey type.
I've never seen a snake play a game.
I've never seen a brush contrall a train.

I've never seen a giraffe learning how to bake.
I've never seen a gorilla hold a rake.
I've never seen a lizard in a lake.
I've never seen a rabbit fry a stake.

I've never seen a donkey with a bear.
I've never seen a fish swim in the air.
I've never seen a bear curl its hair.
I've never seen a pig eat a pear.
